

Presentation tips

- you have to show why its a good idea to others
- convince them about your idea (your idea is that hiring your is good and better than hiring others)
- have to use presentations to sell your ideas
- a great example of a good presentation is steve jobs what a phone should be
- too many words is bad - will look bad, no one will read, and waste of time
- audience is either listening or reading
- there may be a good idea in a cluster of words, but we cant find it

Pros:

- great presentations can unlock a realm of possibilities
- great presentations get you hired
- poor presentations put everyone to sleep

Tips:

- craft a compelling message - “avoid death by powerpoint”
- don't just give info - tell a story
- make people laugh - appropriate
- make people feel relaxed
- focus on the content on that slide
- use contrast
- shrink down title and make info larger
- gray out other bullet points and color the point youre talking about
- dark mode
- six things per slide max

Demo first then explain experience
